

POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

MEMBERSHIP AND TERMS OF REFERENCE

Membership

(a) ex-officio and non-voting:

Internal Review Committee (IRC) Chair or designate

Vice Dean, Postgraduate Medical Education (Chair)

Vice Dean, Undergraduate Medicine

Director, Resident Wellness

Director, Education and Research

Director, Policy and Analysis

Director, Operations

U of T CPSO Representative

Undergraduate Education Clerkship Representative

Associate Dean, Equity and Professionalism

(b) Postgrad Education Program Directors (recommended by the Vice Dean)

Anesthesia

Community Medicine

Diagnostic Radiology

Family Medicine

Lab Medicine

Medicine (core)

Medicine (sub-specialties)

Obstetrics and Gynecology

Otolaryngology

Ophthalmology

Radiation Oncology

Pediatrics (core)

Pediatrics (sub-specialties)

Psychiatry

Surgery

Clinician Investigator Program

- (c) up to 4 elected postgraduate residents
- (d) up to 3 hospital representatives (appointed by HUEC)
- (e) Invited Representatives as needed from the following:

- Bioethics Programs
- Equity and Diversity Programs
- Fellowship Programs
- IMG Programs
- Education/Scholarship
- CME/Faculty Development
- Interdepartmental Units/Joint Programs
- Government Representative
- Other Programs per invitation

Function/Purpose:

- (a) to act as an advisory committee to the Dean and Vice Dean
- (b) to generate policy recommendations to Faculty Council on all matters related to postgraduate medical education, including those brought to it by its committees

Committees reporting to PGMEAC:

- Postgraduate Awards Committee
- Awards Adjudication Committee
- Internal Review Committee
- POWER Steering Committee
- Quota Allocation Committee
- PGCorEd Subcommittee

Quorum:

For any policy/guidelines which require a vote advising the Vice Dean, approval of 50% +1 of Program Directors listed in (b) must be achieved. Voting may also occur by proxy or electronic means.

Rev. Nov. 2012, PGMEAC